

“Was your Judgment/Order or Award given Outside Northern Ireland? If so, read on...”

What should I do now?

Your Judgment/Order or Award must by law be registered in Northern Ireland before the Enforcement of Judgments Office can proceed to take action against the debtor.

Please see below for some basic advice provide by the Front of House office.

For further advice, you can contact the ‘Front of House’, Royal Courts of Justice, Chichester Street, Belfast, BT1 3JF, Telephone 02890 725925.

Staff there will provide you with full guidance in what steps to take next.

Once you have completed this process, you can then ask the Enforcement of Judgments Office to enforce your judgment.

For further advice on the enforcement process in Northern Ireland, please read other fact sheets that are available on this website.

Certificate of Money Provisions Procedure

A sealed certificate of money provisions is required under the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982 in order to register a judgment against a debtor resident in Northern Ireland which has been made outside Northern Ireland.

This form is prescribed in the English Supreme Court Practice (Appendix A Prescribed Forms No 111) and in the English County Court Practice (Order 35 Part 11 Rules 4-6); I have enclosed a draft for your information. There is no fee for this application.

When you have obtained the correct certificate, please photocopy it and certify on the reverse that it is a true copy of the original and forward both to the address above. The copy certificate will then be returned to you once the judgment has been registered.
